NARROW ESCAPE

Discovery of a Stick of Dynamite
in a Coal Car

A miss is as good as a mile, but it was a narrow escape and gave the boys a fright that they will not soon forget.

The Ohio Valley Pailley Works receive coal
by the carload and on Monday while August Hauck was emptying a car he came across something wrapped in a peculiar manner which contained a substance he was not familiar with.

He handed it to his companion with the request to take it to the boiler room and put it in the furnace to see what it would do.

The man entered the boiler room and was about to do as he had been told, when Archie Boley, who is in charge of the room and is an intelligent young man who has heretofore had much to do with dynamite, fortunately espied the stuff just as the man was about to open the furnace door.

"My God, man!" exclaimed Boley, "don't do that," and seizing the package rushed it out of the room.

It was a stick of dynamite about a foot long and contained enough force to blow the big plant off the face of the earth and to kingdom come.

How it came where it was found will, perhaps,
never be known, but is probable it came from the coal mines where the car was loaded.

DOMESTIC INFELICITY

An East End Man Has Trouble With His Better Half

"Say, is this Police Headquarters?" asked a tremulous and excited voice over the 'phone at the Mayor's office yesterday.

"Yes, what's wanted?" responded the man at the receiving end of the 'phone.

"I want you to send a policeman up here; a man has run off with my wife."

The message was sent by William E. Clutter in the East End, who seems to be having trouble with his better half.

Policeman Ryan was dispatched in hot haste to the husband's assistance. Arriving on the scene he was not long in sizing up the situation and concluded the best thing to do was to escort both husband and wife to headquarters.

The woman was almost hysterical when she arrived at the seat of Justice.

After a sensible talk by the Police Judge, she gave up the idea of committing suicide as she had threatened to do, but declared her intention of never again living with her husband.

They departed and each one took a different course. What the outcome will be remains to be seen.

T. K. Stone, a Lewis county farmer, notified the Cincinnati police yesterday that he had been buncoed.

Stone said that Saturday night a man bought a team of mules from him for $175. The money was to have been paid in Cincinnati.

The mules were left in a stable at Vanceburg and he and the man went to Cincinnati.

The stranger told him that Cincinnati was infested with thieves and persuaded him to turn over to him $143 he carried for "safe keeping."

They were to meet in a hotel office later and the money was to be returned, but when Stone got there the stranger was not in sight.

He found also that the mules had been taken from the stable in Vanceburg after he and the "con" man left there Monday.

Sketch of Our Candidate

JUDGE JOSEPH B. BENNETT

Republican Candidate For Congress For Ninth District

A Farmer Boy Who Rises to Prominence Through His Own Exertions

Joseph B. Bennett, the present Judge of Greenup County and the Republican nominee for Congress in the Ninth Congressional District, was born at Bennett's Mills in Greenup county on the 21st day of April, 1850, being at this time in his forty-sixth year.

At the age of seventeen he began teaching school in his native county and reading law. To the law he applied himself so studiously that at the age of nineteen he was admitted to the bar, being examined for admission by F. R. Trussell and George E. Roe, and his license to practice law was approved and signed by Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, Special Judge of the Greenup Circuit Court.

In 1882 he was nominated by acclamation by his party for the office of County Attorney. After an active campaign he was defeated, Greenup county at that time being a Democratic county.

In 1888 he was again nominated for County Attorney, and defeated in the election following. He made an active campaign in that election, as he did four years before, and greatly reduced the Democratic majority in the county against him. The race made him a favorite with his party and many that opposed him.

For the next eight years he was engaged in practicing law, selling goods and farming, but always taking an active interest in the welfare and prosperity of the county.

In 1894 he received the unanimous nomination of his party for County Judge of Greenup County, and after one of the hottest political contests that was ever fought to a finish in Greenup county he was elected. He came to the Bench well equipped for the position. He has spent all his spare time in the study of law, history and literature, preparing himself for a useful and honorable life. Near the close of his first term of County Judge he was again nominated by acclamation for election and was elected by an increased majority, and at the close of his second term he was again nominated by acclamation and was elected by a greatly increased majority, notwithstanding the Democrats pitted against him the strongest man within their party.

In this race he received votes from many Democrats, who admired his able, upright, fair and impartial course as Judge of the county.

His majority in his last race was nearly 500, while his majority in the first race for County Judge was only a few over a hundred, and he has a greater number of fast friends than he has ever had at any period of his life. This friendship is not confined to his own party, either.

On the 26th day of August, 1903, Judge Bennett was nominated by acclamation for the office of Circuit Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial District by one of the most enthusiastic Conventions ever held in that District. He at once entered upon an active and progressive campaign against Hon. J. P. Harbeson, one of the most popular men in Northeastern Kentucky. After a very exciting campaign he was defeated by the small vote of 84. This was again a marked reduction in this Democratic District and a personal triumph.

Judge Bennett was married in 1883 to Miss Annie Mytlinger, daughter of C. W. Mytlinger, a soldier in the Union Army during the late War between the states. She was born in Mayville and has many relatives in Mason and Lewis counties. Their marriage has been blessed with eight children, two sons and six daughters, all of whom are at home. He and his wife and several of his daughters and one son are members of the Christian Church.

Judge Bennett is a Royal Arch Mason, a member of Greenup Lodge. He is also affiliated with the Oddfellows Lodge of Greenup, the Knights of the Golden Eagle of Greenup and the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of Ashland. He is a past officer in the three orders first named.

At the Republican Convention held in Mayville, Ky., October 6th, Judge Bennett was nominated by his party by acclamation as their candidate for Congress. He has now entered upon an active and progressive campaign and will continue to do so until the election.

When the people of the Ninth District vote for J. B. Bennett they are voting for a man who loves right and will see it pre-ail, if it is within his power to do so. He is a lawyer of the highest type; he is a man who loves his country and his party; a man of energy and uprightness and loyal to his friends.

POISON SUSPECTED

Stomach of John Rose of Epworth Will Be Analyzed

John Rose, a resident of Epworth, Lewis county, died last week after an illness of only a few days, and his remains were interred in Olivet Cemetery Sunday.

The sudden and peculiar manner of his death caused suspicion to arise in the minds of his friends that there had been foul play and that his death was not by natural cause.

Monday the body was exhumed and the stomach taken out and brought to this city. It was taken to Cincinnati yesterday morning by Dr. H. K. Adamson, where an analysis will be made to find out whether or not he had been poisoned, as now seems to be the opinion of his friends.

He was the second husband of his present widow.

CAPTURED THIEVES

And Stolen Property Recovered Yesterday in This City

Several nights ago the toolhouse of the Ohio River and Columbus Railway near Ripley was entered and robbed of about $200 worth of material, consisting of copper wire, rubber belting and other stuff.

Harry Sands and Andrew Johnson, alias Baker, were arrested by Marshal Miller and held on the charge of loitering.

He then came to this city and secured the aid of Policeman Ryan in turning up the stolen swag.

They proceeded to the junk establishment of Middleman in Front street and after a parley the stolen property was recovered after returning Middleman $13 he had paid the thieves for the $200 worth of material.

Marshal Miller has a dead sure case against the prisoners that will insure their conviction.

Jonas Hatfield's barn burned near Ripley, causing a loss of about $3,000.

A tobacco, corn, wheat and potato fair for Flemingsburg is being arranged for next January.

SPRINGDALE.

Mr. W. H. Hook had a good horse to die recently.

Miss Myrna Gillespie of Tollesboro was a pleasant guest of friends here the past week.
Messrs. Rufus and Tom Emmons came in from Illinois to meet their brother, Victor, who is home on a furlough.

A meeting of those interested in building a fence around Bethany Cemetery will be held there Wednesday forenoon.

Mr. Rufus Emmons returned Sunday to his home in Illinois, taking with him his young brother, Master Strode, for whom he has secured a good position.

Mr. C. C. Degman and Dr. Bowman returned Saturday from Winchester, O., where they attended the reunion of the Seventieth Ohio V.
I., which convened there Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Charles Hoots of Indianapolis, Neb., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Clark was here Sunday en route to Manchester, where she will remain the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ramsey, till Mr. Clark locates their future home, probably in Colorado.

Several of our citizens attended the Clark sale near Union Schoolhouse Friday. Household furniture, farm implements and stock were sold, all bringing good prices. Mr. Clark leaves soon for the West.

To one who loves good roads, and who gives to the question some thought, the present condition of some of the neighboring turnpikes is, without any reasonable excuse, deplorable to say the least. During a drive up the fertile and beautiful valley of Cabin creek the past week one drove through dust several inches deep lying immediately on the bed rock, which,
being depressed from the shoulders, formed a kind of trough, down which the water will run in the near future, taking this dust with it, leaving the bed rock bare, to be "bumped" over the coming winter. All along this miserable sham of a road lies inexhaustible beds of the finest angular gravel only a few rods distant at any point. If this gravel was dropped evenly and thinly along the road the coming rains would moisten the dust, thus forming a key to hold it, and a smooth road would be made.

MOUNT GILEAD.

The neighbors of Mr. Henry Arnold enjoyed a musical at his house; also at Mr. George Hutton's, this week.

Mr. George Arnold's daughter from Lewis county is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Howard Farrow, and pleasantly entertaining callers.

After an interchange with an airy spell of weather, Mr. Almsmith is happy to announce the arrival of another heir to the Almsmith claims.

There is a fine prospect for rain just now, which has been brewing for several days, and when it comes it will be a wholesale relief to the anxious minds of the farmers.

Mrs. Alex. Bramel with her sister, Miss Enochs, is still in Bourbon county with her daughter, who is seriously ill. The latter is the widow of Mr. Charles Kyle, lately deceased.

Candidates are getting very lively now looking after their interests in the next primary and by the way, we have the honor and pleasure of announcing one near our town who aspires to the office of Magistrate—Mr. F. Clay Stone, THE LEDGER correspondent, and a most worthy citizen of this place.

The extended dry weather is causing a scarcity of water and short grass. The old saying is:
"Sow wheat in the dust." If there is any virtue in it we may look out for a mighty crop, for what is sown is still lying in the dust waiting for rain to sprout it; for which reason some have concluded not to sow at all. A good crop of corn has been put in shocks in splendid order. The potato crop is short of expectations, though fine in quality.

COTTAGEVILLE.

Miss Otis Osborn is on the sick list.

A protracted meeting is in session at Bethany Christian Church.

A severe wind and hail storm visited this section Friday evening.

Mr. William Riggan of Mt. Carmel was here
Saturday and Sunday visiting his mother.

Mrs. Alice Dorain and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Northfork, visited relatives here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ferguson visited relatives in Nicholas county from Wednesday until Saturday.

Rev. Barnes of the Tollesboro Christian Church will preach at Ebenezer Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

Mr. G. E. Clark expects to leave this week for St. Joseph, Mo., to look for a location. His wife has gone to Manchester, where she will spend the winter.

The death of Mrs. Lizzie Gill occurred last Wednesday. The remains were interred in Ebenezer Cemetery Thursday. She is survived by her husband and little son.

JAMES F. MITCHELL.

Mr. James F. Mitchell of Lexington died Monday morning at Louisville, where he had been in a hospital for the last two years. He received a fall a few years ago that fractured his skull, from which he never recovered.

He is survived by his wife and three children.
His father is W. S. Mitchell of Helena, and he has three brothers—W. and John Mitchell of Helena, and D. B. Mitchell, the Lexington horseman.

The interment took place yesterday at Lexington.

SARAH BELLE MORROW.

Mrs. Sarah Belle Morrow, born in this city
January 10th, 1832, died Sunday last in Chicago, where she had resided for some years.

She was a daughter of Mr. Nat. Poyntz, who for a long time conducted a large tannery in conjunction with his brother William on the site of the Cox Building.

She is survived by a son, residing in New York, and a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Poyntz, of Philadelphia.

In early life she married Mr. Robert T. Morrow, and for many years they resided in Paris, where her remains were interred beside her husband and daughter, who died years ago.

This Advice Will Bear Repeating in Maysville.

"Don't chase shadows."
Doubtful proof is but a shadow.
You can rely on testimony of people you know.

You can investigate local evidence.
Mr. W. H. Campbell of No. 49 West Third street says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills sold at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, proved to be a wonderfully effective remedy for relieving and curing kidney troubles. It is a great boon to people on the down grade of life to know of a remedy which has such soothing and healing powers. It should be known to every person of advanced age."

A sincere desire to handle only Furniture and Pianos made of sound wood, thoroughly seasoned and mechanically perfect in construction requires the patience of a Job in the selection of a stock, for the world is flooded with cheap furniture and pianos that look good to the inexperienced eye, and constant exercise of all the knowledge gained in eighteen years active experience is necessary to pick the worthy from the unworthy.

A LOOK THROUGH THE WHITE PALACE

Will impress you with the tireless energy devoted to the collection of these beautiful models of propriety, exclusive designs of wood and finish, symmetrically and mechanically perfect with bright and shining faces whose every glance betrays the beautiful quarter
